Campus Newsletter

Shelton State Community College recently announced its selection of the most outstanding faculty, support staff person, and administrator for 1993. These four individuals represented the college at the annual Alabama College System conference in Birmingham last week.

Shirley Spencer, registrar and director of veterans affairs on the C. A. Fredd Campus, was named the outstanding administrator for the year. Nova Lee Fanning, nursing instructor, was named the outstanding junior college instructor, and Phyllis M. Stanley was named the outstanding technical faculty member. Jeanetta Hargrow was selected the outstanding support staff person.

Spencer is a member of St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church and is past director of the young people's department. She is also secretary and chaplain of Las Vallente Civic Club. She has served as the alternate administrative representative on postsecondary committee on Policy Matters and chaired the Self Study Clerical Committee.

Lee Fanning is an instructor in the Associate Degree Nursing Program at Shelton and has a Masters of Nursing degree from Mississippi University for Women. In 1979 she received her Nurse Practitioner Certification. She is a member of the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists and is a member of St. Luke's Methodist Church.

Mrs. Stanley is an adult education instructor at the college and was selected Alabama's Adult Education Teacher of the Year in 1993 and was also recognized this year by the Tuscaloosa County Board of Education for Literacy efforts in Tuscaloosa. She is a member of the Alabama Association of Public and Continuing Adult Education, the Tuscaloosa Reading Council, Alabama Reading Association, the International Reading Association, Volunteer Literacy Network, and the Postsecondary Reading Council.

Ms. Hargrow is the admissions and records specialist for the college and has been employed at Shelton State for 13 years. She received a scholarship from the United Negro College Fund that helped her complete her BS degree from Stillman College this year. In 1993 she was also nominated for Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

SHELTON STATES RECRUITING UPDATE

Interest in Shelton State has never been stronger, according to recruiter Rick Shelton. Since October, the office of recruiting has received over 1800 information request cards from adults and high school students in our service area and across the state. Programs of particular interest to prospective students include: accounting; business; commercial art; cosmetology; nursing; childcare; computer science; electronics; education; and the allied health professions. High school seniors and every adult expressing an interest in attending Shelton State will be contacted three times during the year and lists of prospective students will be made available to every department head at the college.

In addition to attending 25 college and career days over the past two months, Shelton State's recruiting staff has made presentations to various groups in local communities and schools. Our recruiting effort is off to a good start. Help keep it going! Remember, recruiting is everyone's job.

DECEMBER TELEPHONE REGISTRATION

Current and former students of the college along with students from the University of Alabama and other colleges and universities who have applications on file at Shelton, may register by telephone for spring classes December 6-10. Students may call 759-2349 or 758-1978 from 1-4 p.m. during the five days. For classes scheduled through December telephone registration, tuition must be paid by 5 p.m. on Monday, December 13.

SHELTON TO SPONSOR CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

The fine arts department of Shelton State Community College will present a Christmas Celebration of music, drama, and dance on Monday and Tuesday, December 6-7, at 7 p.m. in the auditorium of the college's Skyland Campus.

The evening will begin with wassail, plum pudding and light refreshments, along with Renaissance fanfares by the Shelton State Brass Ensemble, directed by Stewart Hampton. Authentic folk dances will be presented by students of Louise Crofton, dance instructor at the college.

To climax the evening, the Shelton Singers will present the musical drama AMAHAL AND THE NIGHT VISITORS by Gian-Carlo Menotti. Written in 1951, this well known Christmas classic tells of a poor crippled boy and his widowed mother who are visited by the three kings.

The role of Amahl will be sung by freshman music major Lisa Blewitt. Glinda Blackshear, Shelton State vocal/choral instructor, will sing the mother's role. The three kings will be sung by Chris Tucker, Kelvin Hyche, and Brian Harvey, with Chris Babb as the page. Don Speed is directing the production, and Glinda Blackshear is music director. Becki Stallsmith will accompany, with assistance from Shannon Ball.

Tickets are $5.00 for general admission or $25.00 for two patron tickets. Tickets are available from any Shelton Singer, at the door, or by calling 391-2344. Linda Grote is chairman of the college's department of fine arts.

SHELTON STATE TO SPONSOR MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT

The Miss Shelton State Pageant will be held on Saturday, February 19, in the college's Skyland Boulevard Campus auditorium. The pageant is open to any young woman between 17 and 24 years of age, who has never been married, and who attends the college full or part-time. There is no entry fee for the pageant but students are required to take a one hour pageant workshop course during Spring semester. Deadline for entering the Pageant is December 17. Anyone who is interested in entering the pageant should contact Kari Kubiszyn, 348-6015, or Glinda Blackshear, 391-2344.

FRIENDS OF THE COLLEGE LUNCHEON

The Friends of the College will sponsor a Christmas Luncheon on Tuesday, December 14, at Chianti's. The Shelton State Foundation will host the luncheon for all FRIENDS. All proceeds from the FRIENDS go to the Foundation Scholarship Fund. For more information, call Lucy Kubiszyn, 391-2221, or the Foundation office, 391-2298.

RICK SHELTON AND HOGGLE'S CHRISTMAS

Rick Shelton will speak on his new book, HOGGLE'S CHRISTMAS, at 12 noon on December 14 as part of "Books Sandwiched In," which will be held in the Tuscaloosa Public Library located on River Road.

SPANISH CLUB NEWS

Rent a Student from the Spanish Club! Don't get caught up in the "hustle and bustle" of Christmas. Rent a student from the Spanish Club for $20.00 for four hours of personal service. For help at home or at school, call Marilyn Terry, 391-2201 or Louise Pruett, 391-9022.

The Spanish Club will wrap Christmas presents for a minimal fee Friday, December 10, from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Skyland Campus auditorium. Call Marilyn Terry, 391-2201, for more information.
